Episcopal and Catholic churches At the former an eloquent and impressive discourse was delived by Rev. H. Purdon. Business was Lenerally depended, all of the principal stores being clos ed during the greater part of the day, and the merchants and the elecks taking a boliday to gether. The town was unusually free from bols across revelry and intoxication, and the comnunity was disturbed by no noticeable disorder children in the streets told in unmistal able ian But Christmas festivities would have been in complete without the Sanday School jubilees ap pointed for the evening. The Presbyterian Sun day School assembled at City Half, and an eager crowd of speciators were in attendance to wit noss the pleasant exercises. An immense ever green tree occupied the centre of the hall near the ones and books and other appropriate presents tened among the branches. The tables surrounding the tree were supplied with fruit and cake and more substantial edibles. The exercises were conducted by Col Cogawell, Superinten dent of the school, and after prayer and remarks by Rev Mr Taylor recitations duets and chor uses were heard from the children.
